Sandy Creek Nature Center is a facility of the Athens-Clarke County Leisure Services Department

Membership Information

Sandy Creek Nature Center, Inc. is the nonprofit 501(c)3 organization which founded Sandy Creek Nature Center in 1973. We now work in partnership with the Athens-Clarke County Leisure Services Department, Arts and Nature Division, to provide ongoing support to Sandy Creek Nature Center.

Memberships provide funding for educational program materials, equipment and development as well as capital improvements. Your tax-deductible donation also helps expand awareness and appreciation of the natural environment in Northeast Georgia. Members are an essential part of Sandy Creek Nature Center and support our mission with time, talents, and contributions.

As a member, you will receive:

- Our newsletter "The Hyla" which includes a calendar of events, 3x/year.
- 10% discount to Sandy Creek Day Camp
- 10% discount to Sandy Creek Nature Center mini-camps
- Special pricing for birthday parties
- Invitations to members-only events
- 10% discount on purchases at the Frog Pond Shop
- You also qualify for reciprocal admissions and discounts at over 100 other nature centers in the U.S. and Canada.
- Knowledge that you are supporting a vital resource for environmental education in NE Georgia

When you join as a member you will receive our thank you letter in the mail, along with your membership card, car window cling decal or refrigerator magnet, the newsletter, trail brochure and other materials. On behalf of the members, volunteers, visitors and staff at Sandy Creek Nature Center, thank you for making this generous donation.

Come Explore - Inside & Out!

Come explore our newly expanded exhibit hall with interactive learning centers that feature the wetlands, coastal, woodlands, agricultural and urban environments of Northeast Georgia. We also have a Sky Center and offer regular planetarium programs. After exploring the exhibits, head outside and hike on one of our many trails to experience what you have learned first hand.
