The Greenway Network Plan includes designated areas involving University of Georgia, state and federal properties. These areas signify opportunities for comprehensive community planning and general planning toward the development of an integrated community-wide "green infrastructure." Such designations are not intended to restrict the development of University of Georgia, state or federal properties, but rather encourage joint planning and cooperation leading to an integrated community-wide "green infrastructure.

December 2016

Prepared by
ACC Leisure Services
Office of Park Planning
in cooperation with the Oconee Rivers
Greenway Commission

GREENWAY NETWORK MAP
INSET
Greenway Network Plan
2016 UPDATE

LEGEND

Conservation Corridors
Path Corridors
Conservation Area
Existing
Government Owned Conservation
Funded
Parks
Proposed
Government Parcels
Multi-use Trail
Other Features
Existing Streets
Water Trail Access
Rail with Trail
Wetland
Trail Pending Master Plan
Tributaries
Existing
Foot Trail
Proposed
Rail to Trail
Water Trail Access
Future
Water Trail Access
Existing
Conservation Area
Existing
Government Owned Conservation

LOCATION MAP

Athens-Clarke
County

The Greenway Network Plan includes designated areas involving University of Georgia, state and federal properties. These areas signify opportunities for comprehensive community planning and general planning toward the development of an integrated community-wide "green infrastructure." Such designations are not intended to restrict the development of University of Georgia, state or federal properties, but rather encourage joint planning and cooperation leading to an integrated community-wide "green infrastructure."